

VOLUNTEER POLICY

The Merrick Public Library Volunteer Program is designed to expand and enhance public service to the community. Volunteers generally provide support services to paid staff and/or work on special projects. Volunteers are expected to act in accordance with library policies and to reflect positive customer service attitudes to all library patrons. Volunteers must pass a CORI check.

Definition

A volunteer shall be considered as any individual, 14 years or older, who assists with work done at the Merrick Public Library, without remuneration beginning July 9, 2008.

Selection of Volunteers

Volunteers are selected based on their qualifications in relation to the needs of the library at any given time, and based on their ability to commit to a consistent schedule of volunteer hours. Selection of in-house volunteers is the responsibility of the Director.

Volunteers may be asked to work on projects that are supportive of staff efforts. Examples include: shelving books, emptying the book drop, discarding materials, shelf-reading, shifting materials, and other work as directed by library staff.

Prospective volunteers must fill out an application and will be interviewed. If there are no suitable volunteer opportunities, application forms will be kept on file for a period of one year. Applicants will be called if a project is identified which matches their interests or qualifications.

Hours of volunteer service will be determined by the supervisory staff member in discussion with the volunteer and the approval of the Director. Volunteers are expected to arrive at the library in time to begin work as scheduled or call the library if they will be absent. All volunteer work must be completed within normal library hours. Exceptions may be made by the Library Director.

Volunteers will work directly with library staff members to receive training and complete projects.

Roles and Responsibilities

The library asks volunteers to be reliable in their commitment to the library and to notify the library in advance if they are unable to work their regularly scheduled time slot. In turn, volunteers will be notified immediately on any given day when the library opens late or closes early for any reason.

Volunteers are expected to refer all requests for information to the library staff, other than purely directional questions (e.g. where is the bathroom; where is the children's room, etc.).

Volunteers are expected to behave as staff members and personify professionalism. Irresponsible behavior will be addressed and corrected. If problems persist termination could be necessary.

- Training and Supervision

The Library Director coordinates the volunteer program. Volunteers will receive specific training in their assigned duties from the library staff member who directly supervises their work. All reasonable care will be taken to ensure the safety of volunteers.

- Work Schedules

Volunteers shall only work during hours when adequate supervision is available. Typically, a volunteer works an assigned time slot each week. Individual work schedules and specific time commitments will be mutually arranged in advance by the volunteer and the Director or immediate supervisor.

Community Service

Persons who seek volunteer assignments at the Merrick Public Library to meet a requirement set by an outside agency for the performance of community service shall be subject to the above selection process and all other provisions of this policy.

Employment of Volunteers in the Library

Volunteers should follow the Town of Brookfield employment process in order to obtain paid employment in the library.

Leaving Volunteer Service

A volunteer selected for work on a special project will discontinue service when that project is completed or terminated, unless other arrangements have been made. Whenever possible, the library will try to reassign the volunteer. However, if no other mutually suitable volunteer position exists at the time, the volunteer will be asked to discontinue service and his or her application will be kept on file for one year, subject to review should a suitable position become available during that time.

In the event that a volunteer is unable to adequately perform the duties assigned to him or her, and no other appropriate positions are available, the volunteer may be removed from service. Should a Volunteer have a grievance with a staff person, another volunteer or library patron, every attempt will be made to handle the situation through the Library Director. The Merrick Public Library reserves the right to terminate the services of the Volunteer.

1. Volunteers may be used to increase the Library's services.
2. Volunteers may not be used to establish and maintain new library services.
3. Volunteers will not be used to replace or reduce the number of paid staff.
4. Volunteers should expect to fulfill a commitment agreed upon with the Library.
5. Volunteers are recognized as contributors to the goals and services of the Library.
